2016 National Conference

Our 2016 National Conference was greatly blessed with some divine interruptions throughout the week. Anointed preaching, singing, and worship combined to create a fresh, spiritual momentum for everyone who attended. The pastors and saints of our mission returned to the battle front—full of faith for a great harvest this year!

Thoughts on the Philippines

“We were greatly blessed and deeply challenged by a most remarkable journey to the Luzon Camp meeting. The saints in the Philippines have such pure motives and are eager to be led. I noted their honest sincerity by the many pools of tears left behind each altar service. The half cannot be told but this work has great leadership in Bishop and Ma'am White and without doubt a wonderful future. “

Evangelist Trey Elliot

“What deep desire and passion the Philippine church has for the things of God! Their love for souls is evident in their praise, worship, and evangelism.”

—Pastor W.M. Weidner

“From day one, we completely fell in love with the Philippine people. Without material things and hobbies, their passion for God and their church is top priority.”

—Rev. N. Weidner

“Being in the Philippines for the 2016 National Conference was a tremendous blessing for me--I have never been treated better!! I was impressed not only by the sincere worship among the saints but also by the mature leadership among the Elders and Pastors. There is tremendous potential for growth and Apostolic Revival in the Philippines and I believe that the AMA is in a great position to be a significant part of that Harvest. “

—Pastor Samuel Ham

Those who won a new soul this past year!
